2023 FL State Shoot Report: Louise Terry on behalf of Pat Welch

The 2023 FL State Sporting Championships will be held at Bradford Sportsmen's Farm on April 20-23, 2023.

Pat Welch reports that everything is progressing along well. PROMATIC is the major shoot sponsor and target setters Rick Hemingway and Joe Scull will join Pat and the "Bradford Boys" to set the courses. Lois Neely will be handling registration and scoring duties. FITASC refs and trappers are lined up. There will be a Shooter's Dinner at the club in their new enclosed pavilion on Saturday night; the weekend caterer for food service has been hired and will be serving buffet breakfasts and lunches every day. There will also be several food trucks for a variety of offerings, even including a specialty coffee truck. Bradford is also purchasing several guns to be raffled.

FSCA is providing beautiful belt buckles for the Main Event trophies and is also discounting every FL resident's entry by $60.00. There will also be door prizes from FSCA to be drawn for on Saturday night at the party.

Note:

- sign up on SCORECHASER.COM
- current entry is at 232 shooters
- refund deadline is April 6, 2023
- camping spots are full at this time.

Pat invites everyone to attend: "We at Bradford are "all in" to make this a great shoot for our guests, and we look forward to welcoming everyone here at BSF."

Dan opened the floor to questions and told everyone to watch for the monthly newsletters.

At approximately 1:30 the meeting was adjourned.
